Coastal location, close to London & Brighton

Bexhill is perfectly situated on the south coast of England just 65 miles from central London (1.5 hours by train), and just over 30 miles from Brighton (50 minutes by train).

It is also easily placed for the international traveller with Heathrow airport around 2 hours away and the Eurostar train station just 45 minutes away.

Bexhill has a stunning coastline with a wide level promenade, a gently sloping and award winning clean beach with a lovely expanse of sand at low tide. In addition, the town features world famous architecture in the shape of the 1930's designed De La Warr Pavilion.

The Bexhill College campus is located within walking distance of the town centre and is well served with local buses making getting to and from College safe and easy.

Unlike a large city, Bexhill has the advantage of low crime rates and low pollution.

In a recent national survey, Bexhill on Sea was voted BEST for quality of life in the Seaside Town category.
